

CROSS-CURRICULAR English

Writing to entertain
Instruction writing

SCIENCE

Light:

How light travels;
How shadows are formed and how they can change.

Sex education:

In accordance with the National Curriculum:

Physical stereotypes;

Puberty and body changes;

Feelings;

Independence and responsibilities.

Electricity:

To understand electrical resistance;

To understand and use recognised symbols;

Recognising how changing a component's position can affect the circuit.

CROSS CURRICULAR MATHS incl

DATA HANDLING

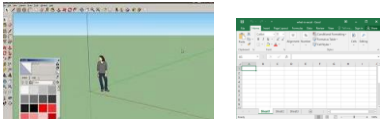

Scales on a map, area and perimeter.

COMPUTING

Spreadsheets

3D modelling

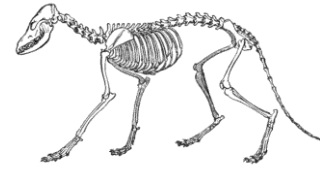

Half term homework projects (optional)

Spring term 1: Natural Disasters

Spring term 2: War inventions & code-breaking

HOOK DAY/ENRICHMENTS

WW2 based trip (TBC)

CHILDREN'S INPUT

Children to write their own lines of enquiry for topic and science.

Children are to choose their own character to write as.

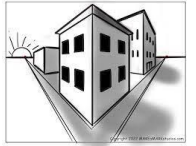

Year 6

SPRING TERM 2024

ART/DT

Perspective drawing - 1 point and 2 point.

MUSIC

Digital Music- Using the elements of music to compose their own piece on an online platform

PSHCE

Healthy me.
Changing me.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

GAMES:

Tag rugby including four core skills - running, catching, passing and tackling;

Tennis- ground strokes, serving and volleying.

DANCE:

Jive;
WW2.

Discrete learning
(unrelated to our topics) will also take place in:

Maths
English
RE
French

HISTORY

International maps and mapping skills;
Continents and countries;
World War on two fronts - who fought in the war;
The causes and impact of war in Europe;
Resistance in Europe;
How the war was won and lost.

GEOGRAPHY

Locating and understanding meaning behind G7/G20

