

Uploading work on Google Classroom

At the bottom of the assignment box, click on View assignment.

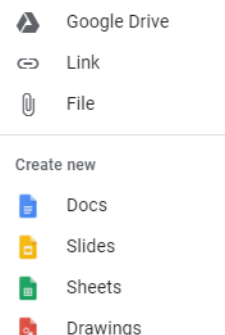

The screenshot shows an assignment titled "Science - Evolution and Adaptation" with a due date of 4:00 PM. The assignment text describes a task on Charles Darwin's theory of evolution and natural selection. It includes three sub-tasks: watching a video and film clips, researching other examples of adaptation, and creating a presentation. Below the text are four preview cards for resources: "How are camels adapted...", "What is adaptation?", "How Animals have adapted...", and a video titled "jeh-fvfs-ved (2021-01-1...". At the bottom of the assignment box, a red arrow points to the "View assignment" link.

You will now see at the top right of the page + Add or create for your classwork.

The screenshot shows the "Your work" section in Google Classroom. It features a header "Your work" and a sub-header "Assigned". Below this, there is a card for a "Google Slides" assignment. At the bottom of the card, there is a purple button labeled "+ Add or create" and a larger purple button labeled "Turn in". A red arrow points from the "Add or create" button towards the right.

When you click on this, you will see the following menu:

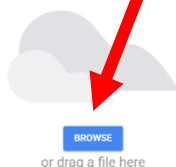

The screenshot shows the "Add or create" menu. It includes options for "Google Drive", "Link", and "File". Below these, there is a section titled "Create new" with options for "Docs", "Slides", "Sheets", and "Drawings".

Here you can upload files that you have on your device, for example a photo, by clicking on the paperclip. This will give you the option to browse your device to locate the saved piece of work.

The screenshot shows the "Insert files using Google Drive" dialog. It has tabs for "RECENT", "UPLOAD", "MY DRIVE", and "STARRED". The "UPLOAD" tab is selected. Below the tabs, there is a large paperclip icon and a "BROWSE" button. A red arrow points from the "BROWSE" button towards the right.

The screenshot shows a close-up of the "BROWSE" button in the "Insert files using Google Drive" dialog. Below the button, it says "or drag a file here". A red arrow points from the "BROWSE" button towards the right.

Once located, click 'open' and the work will upload.
