Funky Friday

Do you want a green hair day?

Do you want to dress up as a Tibetan monk?

Would you like to come dressed identically with your best pal?

Would you like to wear odd socks and your jumper back to front?

Really liked your Halloween outfit or your Christmas jumper?

Want to come dressed as your teacher?

Medieval knight ✓ Onesie ✓

Giant sloth Pyjamas ✓

Plain t-shirt & tracksuit well, if you ☹ really must!

✓

Anything is possible on Funky Friday!

Children are invited to come in whatever creatively crazy mufti they like - the funkier the better (remember to wear suitable shoes and nothing that's going to endanger you or others). In return for a small donation to the PTA (£1 suggested) anything goes - the funkier the better.

If you have PE this day wear your trainers or bring some in a bag.

All funds raised will go to assist with school projects to support enrichment items & activities for all pupils.

Kind regards

Your PTA Team
